EXAMINER'S AMENDMENT

1. An examiner's amendment to the record appears below. Should the changes and/or additions be unacceptable to applicant, an amendment may be filed as provided by 37 CFR 1.312. To ensure consideration of such an amendment, it MUST be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee.

Authorization for this examiner's amendment was given in a telephone interview with Attorney Philip J. Articola on September 24, 2004:

2. AMENDMENTS TO THE CLAIMS:

a. Claim 1, line 13, delete "distributor synchronizes" insert "distributor is a hardware component that has no software processing delay and synchronizes".

REASONS FOR ALLOWANCE

1. The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance:

The instant application discloses a time synchronization system. Prior art references show similar methods but fail to teach “wherein said time signal distributor is a hardware component that has not software processing delay and synchronizes a rising edge of the UTC synchronization references signal with UTC, and transmits the time synchronization signal to each of said terminal devices in a fixed period”, as in claim 1; and “wherein if impossible of receiving the UTC synchronization time signals from an internal reference signal generator for generating an internal reference signal synchronizing with the UTC synchronization reference signal, an internal absolute time signal generator for generating an internal absolute time signal equal to the UTC synchronization absolute time signal and the GPS receiver, said signal synthesizing unit of said time signal distributor generates an internal time signal by synthesizing the internal reference signal and the internal absolute time signal, and transmits this internal time signal as a substitute for the reference time signal in distribution to said respective terminal devices”, as in claim 5.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled “Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance.”
